The final men's event of the 2015 season attracted only 63 players. Again this year, the turnout was down, even though the weather was ideal for a day of golf.

The pace of play was excellent, resulting in everyone finishing before 6 pm. Utilizing a cross-over that started at 12:30 seemed to work really well. The improved pace of play was a welcome change from the pace of play for other events.

The Captain provided a summary of the 2015 golf year, congratulated the winners of events and spoke about the 100th Anniversary celebrations in 2015. He provided a summary of the major events that Mississippi hosted during this past year and thanked the membership at large for their patience and understanding in releasing their golf course to host these events.

He mentioned that he will be looking for more volunteers to assist in running some tournaments next year. The incentive of an early tee time may be tethered with a requirement to assist with the scoring of the event.

The Captain indicated that he will be moving the 2016 Men's Closing event one week earlier in September (on a Saturday) so as to remove any potential misunderstanding between this event and the Men's Night Closing (which is held on a Thursday).
