The final men's event of the 2017 season attracted only 50 players. IN fact, as of the Labour Day Monday, there were a grand total of 6 players signed up. Too bad for those who missed out – it was a beautiful day to golf, the pace of play was excellent and a good time was had by all.

Utilizing a cross-over start at 12:30 seemed to work really well. The improved pace of play was a welcome change from the pace of play for other events.

The Captain provided a summary of the 2017 golf year, congratulated the winners of events and spoke about the events during the year.

All the volunteers who looked after many of the Men's events were thanked for their continuing efforts in helping out. Special mention was also given to Ron Mathews, who volunteered numerous times during the year to come out and assist with scorekeeping details, and to Bob Rose who quietly assisted in numerous other events.

Lastly, congratulations to Gary Hobin for being accepting the nomination as Club Captain. I trust Gary can continue to count on the support that has been provided by the many over my past 8 years as Club Captain.
